

The Generations' Project

Spring 2017

Feedback

Parent Survey:

% of parents who either agreed or strongly agreed with each statement:

I found the Generations' Project enjoyable	-	100%
I found the Generations' Project useful	-	100%
My child enjoyed the Generations' Project	-	100%
I would attend a similar project in the future	-	100%
I feel that I have learnt new activities to try with my child	-	100%
My child has an increased range of high quality reading material	-	100%
The Generations' Project was a good use of P/P money	-	100%

A selection of the comments made:

"I enjoyed working as a team and following instructions."

"Working together was good."

"Very enjoyable."

"Nice to see my grandson trying to work it all out."

"Nice for my daughter in Reception to be able to join in well. Glad it was age-appropriate for her."

"Very good for all ages."

"Very interesting, my grandson now knows how many days there are in a year."

"Very good to see them using their imagination."

"Great communication between pupils and adults."

"Wish we had more time."

“Loved making the hammer as a team.”

“My child was looking forward to this for days.”

“Nothing could improve this.”

“Really enjoyed it and sorry to miss the last session due to illness.”

“Very good for both parent and child.”

“Lovely parent and child time with good experiments.”

“It was really interesting watching the colours changing and seeing the shapes it made.”

“Loved seeing my child using their imagination and getting involved.”

Pupil Survey:

% of pupils who either agreed or strongly agreed with each statement:

I enjoyed coming to the Generations' Project	-	100%
I enjoyed having an adult to work with me	-	100%
I enjoyed going to the book shop	-	100%
I found the activities fun	-	100%
I have tried some of the activities at home already	-	50%

A selection of the comments made:

“Mum followed instructions clearly.”

“I loved building Lego.”

“You can't change anything to make it better.”

“I loved mummy's funny picture of me.”

“We had great fun.”

“Even better if there was more maths and numbers.”

“I enjoyed talking about the story setting.”

“I wanted the sessions to be longer.”